

LUXURY WITHOUT COMPROMISE

Robb Report

SHELTER / HOMES FOR SALE

9 Luxe Homes With Over-The-Top Game Rooms, From Glow-In-The-Dark Casinos to Custom Bowling Alleys

From billiards rooms to arcades, these homes offer entertainment for all ages.

By EMMA REYNOLDS

There's an 18-foot shuffleboard table, poker tables, and a 45-person cinema.
Casa Wirikuta

A Game Room With Golf Simulator in Punta Mita, Mexico

Casa Wirikuta, available for vacation rentals, is a resort within a resort. Located in Punta Mita, Mexico, the sprawling, 24,700-square-foot ocean-front estate has every amenity imaginable and overlooks the 17th hole of the Four Seasons Bahia course. There are seven spacious suites—including a primary bedroom with a chic chess set—and the palatial compound is connected via lush pathways and a main palapa and is fronted by an infinity-edge pool that nearly runs the length of the estate. By night, retreat to The Cava, which has a 45-foot cinema with seating for 24 guests; a game room with a golf simulator, life-size virtual games, and spectator booths; an 18-foot shuffleboard table; and poker tables. There is, of course, wine cellar, tequila bar, and Veuve Clicquot- and Johnnie Walker-themed powder rooms.

